

United Nations Mission In Liberia

United Nations Police

OUTSTANDING LEADERSHIP AWARD

Presented to:

OGNJEN CRNOGORAC
Region 1 Commander

I take this opportunity to commend you for your outstanding leadership in service to UNMIL in your capacity as the UNPOL Region 1 Commander, as well as the dedication, motivation and professional competence you exhibited. You have consistently demonstrated tireless commitment to the mission, to UNPOL, to your staff and to your national counterparts which has contributed to the achievement of the overall goals and objectives of UNPOL.

Under your leadership, UNPOL in Region 1 has consistently and successfully provided the necessary assistance to support the Liberian National Police and other security agencies towards providing a safe and secure environment in Liberia. Your contribution has enabled significant and positive change within Region 1 as they begin and continue to assume security responsibilities in Liberia during UNMIL's Transition.

Among the many operational challenges faced by the Police Component during your tenure you continued to lead the UNPOL Team Leaders in your Region in capacity development of their respective counterparts, as well as maintain peace and security in their respective AOR. Under your leadership, the UNPOL was well planned and executed with professionalism.

Through your tenure in the UN Mission in Liberia your performance has consistently reflected the core values of the UNPOL of Compassion, Courage, Respect, Excellence and Service including an unwavering dedication to duties, work ethics, team spirit and high standards of integrity. Your dedication and service has indeed been above and beyond the typical call of duty.

For your significant contribution to UNMIL through your hard work and professionalism you are presented this Outstanding Leadership Award.

Signed on the 28th day of May 2014, in the City of Monrovia, Liberia.
